

The Claiborne Mansion
AN HISTORIC INN

Claiborne Mansion showcases beautifully appointed suites with queen size beds and spacious marble baths. Views are charming with two upstairs suites that open onto a balcony overlooking Dauphine Street and Washington Square Park. All original marble fireplaces remain and each suite is air-conditioned with individual thermostats, allowing for the utmost comfort in this historic setting. Additionally, we offer a set of adjoining rooms, which combine to create a 2 bedroom, 2 bathroom suite that is perfect for families or two couples traveling together.

The Mansion, has been lovingly restored to its 1850's Greek Revival glory with spacious rooms, 14 foot ceilings, exquisite finishing details, and abundant luxuries. Concentrating on neutral tones throughout the mansion, an environment has been created that is sophisticated and inviting. With old world ambiance that remains upbeat, the Claiborne Mansion is an inn far superior to anything New Orleans has offered in the past.

For personal relaxation and entertaining friends or hosting business associates, The Mansion offers privacy, luxury, and elegance guaranteed to make your stay in New Orleans memorable. Shared facilities include a back wing kitchen, which is a delightful mixture of historic character and modern convenience restored to its original charm and outfitted with stainless steel appliances.

The three-quarter acre grounds include a 40-foot salt water pool and landscaped courtyard. Take pleasure in the shaded gazebo overlooking flourishing gardens and a private citrus grove blooming with satsumas, oranges, and lemons. The original brick patio runs through the lush gardens with limited parking on the premises in addition to convenient street parking.

